The Winnsboro' News announces the death of Mr. Hugh McCarley, at Blackstocks, in that District, on Friday night last, the 20th ult, of pneumonia. At the breaking out of the late war, Mr. McCarley was among the first to rally around the flag of the "lost cause." He joined the 6th South Carolina Infantry, and served with it for several months in Virginia, but finding that he could not stand the infantry service, he joined the Hampton Legion, cavalry, and served with it until the surrender at Appomattox Court House.
